Date: Saturday, 26 November 2005, at 7:15 a.m.

My heartfelt sympathy is extended to all family members as well as friends in the loss of your loved ones. I don't even know these people but have felt such sadness for the parents, children and spouse of the deceased. Being a parent I cannot even imagine the pain they must be enduring...your children are your life no matter what the age. I just hope they recover the body of the other man so that the family can have some closure. You're in my prayers.

It is so hard to understand how these families are coping, but with trust in God and the support of family and friends they will get stronger. Thinking of you all in your time of sorrow.

To U.Freeman and his family the loss of their grandson, to the Cox family and also the Savoury family may each day that passes God embrace you and ease your pain.

My thoughts and prayers are with you

Just as the mist it rises
Then vanishes way down the stream
A.J, Eric and Timmy too have come & then left us
Today it seems like a dream
That they were so much a part of our lives
Now that they lived and loved as we do
Now they have left our hearts and our homes
Like the fish that a fisherman threw
Back in the ocean to go on its way
And thats what A.j, Eric and timmy is doing today
To a bright new world, to see the sun glitter
As they drifts from sight,though our tears are bitter
We know that they,like the fish's leap
Will always be there in our memories deep

Trish: As your own sister I have never felt as helpless in my life as I did when I arrived home and watched the sorrow you were facing and knowing there was not one thing I could do to make it better. My heart ached with yours and my still the sadness continues. And now being so far away, it makes me feel even more helpless. But I want you to know now more than ever how much I love you. And because we live so far away does not mean we can't share in Eric's memories.

Benjamin and dale:

I love you guys so much and miss you very much. Take care of mom for Aunt Tam. Just remember that hundreds of people have prayed for you this past 2 weeks and it has been by God's grace alone that have kept you guys so strong for your mom. Love you so much.

Even though I did not know any of these men or their families, may it bring them some small comfort in knowing that many share in their sorrow. May God grant them the serenity to accept the things they cannot change! God bless them all!!

I know first hand how the goodness and kindness of strangers can get you through some very difficult times....as many of you know...our little town of Fleur De Lys went through hell back in 2000 when Samantha Walsh went missing...through all of that misery, one thing stands out in my mind and that is all the support we received from other little outports all over Newfoundland...we'll never forget that and will be eternally grateful!

Once again deepest sympathy to all of you....God Bless!
